

READING

Part 3: Read the letter. Answer questions 12 and 13.

Dear Sharon,

Thank you for sending your essay. I enjoyed reading your work, and it was nice to learn that you have good childhood memories. I liked the way you described things using sensory details. I made some grammatical corrections on your paper. I also made some comments to help you revise it for the final assignment. Please find the attached file of my feedback, and let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
Claire D.

12. Why does Claire write to Sharon?

- A. To give some feedback on her essay
- B. To tell her to write an essay
- C. To tell her to be more specific with the story

13. What will Sharon find in the attached file?

- A. A story about Claire's childhood
- B. Sharon's feedback on her own essay
- C. Claire's comments on Sharon's essay

Part 3: Read the letter. Answer questions 14 and 15.

To: Tina
From: Carol
Subject: Flying a kite

Hi Tina,

I always want to fly a kite really high but there are no hills near my house to do it. I wasn't sure what to do, so I talked to my dad the other day. He had a great idea! He said, 'You need wind, not a hill to fly a kite.' Guess what? We live near the beach. It's windy there! Last Saturday, we went to the beach and I took my new kite. The wind was perfect. My kite flew up, up, up into the sky! We had a great time. I hope you can come here and fly kites with me next time.

Much love,
Carol

14. Why did Carol think she couldn't fly a kite?

- A. She didn't have a kite.
- B. There were no hills near her place.
- C. There was no wind where she lived.

15. Where did Carol fly her kite last week?

- A. On the beach
- B. On a hill
- C. On a field

Part 3: Read the email. Answer questions 16 to 17.

Hi Paul,

Do you have any plans for this weekend yet? I'm having a barbeque party this Sunday evening at my house. Would you like to come? The party starts at 7 pm. Just my cousins and some of my close friends will be joining me. We will eat my mom's great food and play some fun games together. Could you please bring some music CDs for us to listen to? That would be great.
Hope to see you then.

Your friend,
Dave

16. Why did Dave write this email?

- A. To tell Paul about his new friends
- B. To ask Paul to do him a favor
- C. To invite Paul to his party

17. What did Dave ask Paul to bring?
