

The male reproductive system

The male reproductive system produces sperm.

Complete the sentences.

- A. The testes produce sperm cells.
- B. When the sperm is mature, they pass into the urethra
- C. When they reach the penis, a liquid is released which mix with the sperm to form seminal fluid
- D. The prostate gland provide substances which protect and give nutrients to the sperm.
- E. It enters the scrotum, inside the testes. The function of the scrotum is to allow the sperm to leave the man's body, in a process called ejaculation.
- F. The scrotum is a layer of skin which protects and holds the testes. It helps regulate their temperature.

Label.

