Reading

1 Read the article. Circle the best description of it.

- an article about applying for jobs
- an article about how professionals get ideas

2 Read the article again. Are the sentences about Jianming (J), Colette (C), or Nirmala (N)?

- Who is inspired by their clients? _____
- Who gets ideas from a lot of different places? _____
- Who doesn't use magazines for inspiration now? _____
- Who watches videos for inspiration? _____
- Who used to get ideas from their boss? _____

Professionals of the week: What inspires your work?

Jianming: I've been a hairdresser for ten years. I used to be inspired by haircuts in fashion magazines, but now my customers inspire me. I listen to what they want. I don't want to give them a haircut they don't like just because it's in fashion.

Colette: Over the years, I've learned a lot of new dances to keep my classes interesting. I'm inspired by what my students want. When they asked me to teach them hip-hop steps, I watched music videos for ideas.

Nirmala: As a reporter, I've always paid attention to the news. I read online news. I listen to the radio and podcasts. I follow social media. It's hard work looking for ideas for stories. My manager used to tell me what to write about, but now I find my own ideas.
