Timun emas

Timun Emas

Once upon a time, in a small village in Indonesia, there lived an old woman named Mbok Sirni. She longed for a child and prayed every day to have one. One day, a giant passed by her house and heard her prayers. The giant offered Mbok Sirni a golden cucumber seed, promising that after planting it, she would find a child inside the cucumber. However, the giant warned her that when the child turned sixteen, she must be returned to him.

Mbok Sirni planted the seed, and soon a large cucumber grew. When she opened it, she found a beautiful baby girl inside. She named her Timun Emas, or Golden Cucumber. Years passed, and Timun Emas grew into a lovely young woman. Mbok Sirni was worried about the giant's return, so she sought help from a wise hermit. The hermit gave her four magical items to protect Timun Emas: cucumber seeds, needles, salt, and shrimp paste.

On Timun Emas's sixteenth birthday, the giant came to claim her. Frightened, Timun Emas fled, using the magical items one by one. She threw the cucumber seeds, which sprouted into a dense cucumber field, slowing the giant down. Next, she scattered the needles, which turned into a bamboo forest, pricking the giant. Then, she sprinkled salt, transforming into a vast sea. Finally, she threw the shrimp paste, creating a boiling sea of mud. The giant was trapped and eventually sank.

Timun Emas returned to Mbok Sirni, and they lived happily ever after, free from the giant's threat.
