Mum, the lamp in my room isn't working. Do you have the contact of Encik Rahman, the handyman?

Mum

Why don't we let Dad try to fix it first? He's quite handy. Maybe you only need a new bulb. I'll buy one later after work.

Kiran

Don't worry, Mum. I can grab a new bulb on my way out. I'm going by bike to the lighting store in that area anyway - I'm getting a haircut at the barber there.

The process was surprisingly smooth. After 3 hours, my passport was ready. Let's catch up soon before my trip to Indonesia.

Bye for now,

Dear Diary,

I've been struggling with my insecurity because of Ganesh. He always seems to do everything better than me. Yesterday, he aced his Science exam while I struggled to pass. I wish I could be as smart and confident as him. It's hard not to compare myself to him all the time. I just want Mum and Dad to feel proud of me too.
