

ALL ABOUT INSECTS

Insects are invertebrate animals, because they don't have bones.

They are oviparous, because they lay eggs.

Most insects have wings.

They have six legs.

They have two antennae

Insects pollinate flowers and help them reproduce.

Insect bodies change their form.

This process is called Metamorphosis.

