

Listen carefully and choose the correct answer:

1. What is the butterfly effect?
  - a. A theory about insects' behavior.
  - b. A theory where small actions can lead to major changes.
  - c. A type of game involving dominoes.
2. According to the text, what can happen when a butterfly flaps its wings?
  - a. A domino falls over.
  - b. It causes storms directly.
  - c. It triggers a chain of events leading to significant outcomes.

Listen and complete the sentences with the missing words:

1. The butterfly effect is when very _____ changes lead to large and _____ changes in the future.
2. The domino effect starts with a _____ push of a single domino, leading to a _____ reaction.
3. One _____ leads to another in a chain reaction.

Listen to the text and decide if the following statements are true or false:

1. The butterfly effect and domino effect are unrelated concepts.
2. Dominoes are only used for playing games.
3. The butterfly effect shows how small actions can influence big events in the future.

Match the speaker's statement with the correct concept:

Speaker's Statement

Concept

"When I was little, my friend's parents owned a bookstore."

"As soon as I finished the first thing, the next became clear."

"The argument caused a series of events we couldn't predict."

- a. Domino effect
- b. Chain reaction
- c. Butterfly effect

While listening, write down the steps described in the example of the television writers' strike. Then, summarize how it shows the Butterfly Effect.

Listen and answer in your own words:

1. How are the Butterfly Effect and domino effect similar?

2. What example does the speaker use to describe the butterfly effect in their personal life?

Listen to the part about the domino effect and answer:

1. What are dominoes?
2. How does the domino effect work?

After listening:

- What examples of the butterfly effect can you think of in real life?
- Have you ever experienced a domino effect in your personal or student's life?

