Exercise 1. Gạch chân các âm schwa trong đoạn văn và luyện đọc.

In my country, we have a tradition called "Thanksgiving." It's a holiday where everyone gets together to give thanks for the harvest and blessings of the past year.

Many people take part in it, including families, friends, and neighbors. It's a time for gatherings and feasting, bringing people of all ages and backgrounds together.

During Thanksgiving, families gather around the table to share a special meal. They enjoy dishes like turkey, mashed potatoes, and pumpkin pie. There's also a tradition of expressing gratitude by saying what they're thankful for.

I feel happy about Thanksgiving because it's a time to spend quality time with loved ones. It's a warm and cozy holiday that brings people closer together, which I find comforting and meaningful.

Exercise 2. Đọc đoạn văn và chọn đáp án đúng.

Every year, thousands of people come to Edinburgh, the capital city of Scotland to be part of the Edinburgh Festival. For three weeks every August the city is filled with actors and artists from all over the world. They come to Edinburgh for the biggest arts festival in the UK. During this time the streets of the city are alive with music and dance from early morning until late at night. You can even see artists painting pictures on the streets. One of the best parts of the Festival is the 'Fringe', where students do comedy shows in small halls and cafes.

Tens of thousands of tourists come to the Festival to see new films, plays and hear music played by famous musicians. This year, you can see over eight hundred performances with actors from more than sixty countries.

The tickets for these performances are quite cheap, and it is usually easier to see your favourite star in Edinburgh than it is in London. So come to Edinburgh next summer, but remember it can be hard to find a room, so why not book your hotel now.
