

ETHICS EXAM

Name: _____

Date: _____

Part 1: Choose the best answer to each question.

1. Why is honesty considered crucial in building trust with others?

- A. It allows you to avoid consequences for your actions.
- B. It shows that you are always right and never make mistakes.
- C. It helps create a foundation for authentic relationships and shows others they can rely on you.
- D. It makes you popular among your peers.

2. Which of the following best describes the relationship between honesty and decision-making?

- A. Honesty complicates decision-making because it requires too much thought.
- B. Being honest can lead to clearer choices and better outcomes because it promotes transparency and trust.
- C. Honesty is irrelevant to decision-making; emotions are more important.
- D. Honest decisions are usually unpopular and should be avoided.

3. Reflecting on the attributes of respect, which combination of traits would best contribute to a respectful environment?

- A. Truth, helpfulness, and patience.
- B. Anger, pride, and competitiveness.
- C. Indifference, dishonesty, and impatience.
- D. Jealousy, arrogance, and rudeness.

4. Which of the following statements best describes the difference between small and big decisions?

- A. Small decisions are made quickly and without much thought, while big decisions require careful analysis and have a greater impact on our lives.
- B. Small decisions are always less important than big decisions, regardless of the situation.

C. Big decisions can be made impulsively, just like small decisions, without considering their consequences.

D. Small decisions are made by individuals, while big decisions are made by groups only.

5. When making a decision, which step is essential to consider the potential outcomes of your choices?

A. My Action Steps

B. My Best Option

C. Consequence

D. Stop and Think

6. Why is it important to differentiate between good and bad decisions in our daily lives?

A. Because good decisions always lead to immediate rewards, while bad decisions only lead to punishment.

B. Because understanding the impact of our choices helps us to feel happy and satisfied or to avoid problems in the future.

C. Because all decisions are equally important and do not affect our lives.

D. Because only bad decisions need to be evaluated; good decisions are always obvious.

7. Why is it important for individuals to engage in charitable activities?

A. To gain recognition and fame

B. To improve their personal values and positively impact the lives of others

C. To compete with others in their community

D. To accumulate wealth

8. Which of the following is NOT a reason why people donate to charity?

A. To support a cause they believe in

- B. To make themselves feel good
- C. To boast about their generosity
- D. To introduce the importance of generosity to family and friends

9. What is a key characteristic of a philanthropist?

- A. Someone who only donates money
- B. Someone who works for the welfare of others through various means, including donations
- C. Someone who only participates in charity events for recognition
- D. Someone who focuses solely on personal gain

10. How do charity organizations typically support victims of natural disasters?

- A. By ignoring their needs
- B. By providing financial aid and resources to help rebuild their lives
- C. By competing with other organizations for donations
- D. By only focusing on long-term projects

Part II:

Answer the following questions in the space provided. Use complete sentences and explain your thoughts clearly.

11. Imagined being ignored on the football field. How does this scenario relate to the importance of tolerance and respect for those who are different? Provide examples to support your answer.

12. Imagine you are in a situation where you hear gunshots nearby. Based on what you learned about remaining calm during emergencies, describe the steps you would take to ensure your safety. Why is it important to stay calm in such situations?

13. Explain why it is crucial to appreciate the differences among individuals in society. How can this appreciation lead to success in building relationships?

14. Imagine you are in a situation where you hear gunshots nearby. Based on what you learned about remaining calm during emergencies, describe the steps you would take to ensure your safety. Why is it important to stay calm in such situations?

15. Discuss the concept of the "fire triangle." Why is it essential to understand the components of this triangle when dealing with fire safety? Provide examples of how you could eliminate one of the components to extinguish a fire.
