

ENOLA HOLMES

Enola Holmes, the younger sister of the famous detective Sherlock Holmes, _____ (grow) up in the countryside with her unconventional mother. While her brothers, Sherlock and Mycroft, _____ (leave) the family home years ago, Enola _____ (spend) her childhood learning unusual skills like cryptography and self-defense.

On her 16th birthday, Enola _____ (discover) that her mother _____ (disappear) without a trace. Instead of waiting for her brothers to take action, she _____ (decide) to investigate the mystery herself. Enola _____ (travel) to London, where she _____ (disguise) herself and _____ (solve) not only the mystery of her mother's disappearance but also other intriguing cases.

Throughout the series, Enola _____ (prove) her intelligence and independence, even though society _____ (expect) women of her time to conform to traditional roles. By the end of the first film, she _____ (realize) her true potential as a detective, determined to carve out her own identity.

Exercise: Reported Speech

Convert the direct speech below into reported speech:

Direct Speech to Reported Speech

1. Enola said, "Now where to begin? My mother named me Enola."
 - o Enola said that _____.
 - o
2. Sherlock said, "Your life is your own."
 - o Sherlock said that _____.
3. Enola told her brother, "I won't stop searching for our mother."
 - o Enola told her brother that she _____ (not stop) searching for their mother.
 - o
4. Enola asked, "Where can I find clues about our mother's disappearance?"
 - o Enola asked where she _____ (can) find clues about their mother's disappearance.

5. Enola asked, “What brings you here, detective?”
 - Enola asked _____.
 -
6. Enola’s mother told her, “There are two paths you can take: yours or the one others choose for you.”
 - Enola’s mother told her _____.
 -
7. The narrator declared, “The game is afoot!”
 - The narrator declared that _____.
 -
8. Sherlock remarked, “You are being emotional. That’s understandable.”
 - Sherlock remarked that _____.
 -
9. Enola said, “I am coming to find you, Mother.”
 - Enola said that _____.