1. Cut and paste the definition next to the right picture	A very large gothic church in Westminster. Almost all British kings and queens have been crowned there	This is one of the most famous crossroads. You can see the statue of Eros on the island in the middle. There are lots of shops around	It is a big clock tower. It is famous all over the world. It is part of the Houses of parliament. It is one of the symbols of London.
Nelson's column in this place celebrates his victory over the French and the Spanish in 1805.	It is a very famous bridge over the Thames. They open it when a big ship comes.	From there, you get a fantastic view of London. It is the biggest observation wheel in the world.	A large park in central London, which includes a speaker's corner, a place where ordinary people can make speeches.
This is Queen Elisabeth II's house. There are guards in front of it. When there is the Royal flag, the Queen is in residence.	Once a prison, it is now a museum. There are the Crown Jewels. The beefeaters keep it. You can see ravens (=birds).	A famous building which contains a large and important collection of ancient art, writings, coins, drawings.	It is a major art gallery in London. Founded in 1824, it contains the largest collection of paintings in Britain.
One of the most distinctive buildings in the City of London. It's the blue colored, glass office tower. Its real name is the Swiss Re Tower.	This is the train station where the Eurostar arrives.	It is a very famous shop in London. It's very big. You can buy everything but it's expensive.	The house at number ten is very famous. It is the Prime Minister's house.

LIVEWORKSHEETS