Grammar training

Modal Verbs

Tick the correct item which explains the sentence.

1. I might go shopping after work.

a) It is possible that I will go shopping. b) I will definitely go shopping.

2. She can't use her phone during the lesson.

a) It is not allowed to use her phone. b) It is not necessary to use her phone.

3. You should call your parents more often.

a) It is a rule. b) It is a good idea.

4. You don't have to bring your laptop to the class.

a) It is not necessary to bring your laptop. b) You are not allowed to bring your laptop.

5. You must not park your car here.

a) Parking here is permitted. b) Parking here is prohibited.

6. I can help you with your homework later.

a) I am able to help you. b) I am allowed to help you.

7. She may bring her dog to the party.

a) She has permission to bring her dog. b) She is not allowed to bring her dog.

8. He can speak three languages fluently.

a) He is able to speak three languages. b) He needs to speak three languages.

9. I can't go jogging in the morning—I'm too tired.

a) I am not allowed to go jogging. b) It is not possible for me to go jogging.

10. You mustn't skip your doctor's appointment.

a) It is unnecessary to go to the doctor. b) It is not allowed to skip your appointment.

11. This soup can't be salty; I didn't add any salt.

a) It is not possible for this soup to be salty. b) It is not necessary for the soup to be salty.

12. May you recover quickly and feel better soon.

a) I allow you to recover. b) I hope you get well soon.

English__on_the_go

LIVEWORKSHEETS