

Six quick facts

- a — Scooters and motorbikes are the most common type of transport in Hanoi, Vietnam. There are also lots of bicycles. Twenty years ago, you couldn't see so many scooters and motorbikes on Hanoi's streets, but you could see a lot of bicycles.
- b — Every day, 250,000 people go through Amsterdam Central Station. It's the city's main train and bus station.
- c — The famous Star Ferry in Hong Kong carries over 70,000 passengers a day between Hong Kong Island and Kowloon. That's 26 million passengers a year!
- d — No, this isn't London – it's Mumbai! These Indian buses are 80 years old. The design and colour is the same as London buses.
- e — Take a tram in San Francisco for a traditional experience. But there aren't many these days. One hundred years ago, you could see hundreds of trams in San Francisco. Today, there are only about 40.
- f — Opened in 1935, there are now 206 underground stations in Moscow. Many of the stations are very beautiful. Each one is like an art gallery.

I. Answer the questions:

1. How old the buses in Mumbai?

2. How many San Francisco trams are there today?

3. How many underground stations are there in Moscow?

4. What two kinds of transport can you take from Amsterdam station?

5. Where does the Star Ferry go between?

6. What are three popular types of transport in Hanoi?

II. What do these numbers refer to?

1. 250000 _____
2. 206 _____
3. 40 _____
4. 70000 _____