

Name: _____

Date: _____

Demonstrative Pronouns

A demonstrative pronoun is a pronoun that represents a noun and expresses its position as near or far (including in time). The demonstrative pronouns are "this," "that," "these," and "those."

Click this link https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Pclz_ZK8F7s

1. Which two demonstrative pronouns represent distant things?
 - a. This and that
 - b. These and those
 - c. This and these
 - d. that and those

2. True or false? The demonstrative pronouns this and that represent singular things.
 - a. True
 - b. False

3. True or false? The demonstrative pronouns are this, that, these, and those.
 - a. True
 - b. False

4. _____ chairs belong to my mom; I will take them off the lawn and place them inside.
 - a. That
 - b. These
 - c. This

5. I can tell _____ he is upset, just by his gestures.
 - a. This
 - b. That
 - c. These

6. Do you know that _____ rules govern the game?
 - a. This
 - b. That
 - c. These

7. _____ days are my last in this school, I will be moving on soon.
 - a. This
 - b. That
 - c. These

8. _____ are the expensive shops over there, they are having a sale on Saturday.
 - a. This
 - b. That
 - c. These
 - d. Those

9. _____ is Peter's house, I often go there to swim.
 - a. This
 - b. That
 - c. These
 - d. Those

10. _____ is a red pen, Can't you see?
 - a. This
 - b. These
 - c. Those