PART 1

Questions 1-5

You are going to read a text about “One Man, 52 Jobs”. Five headings have been removed from the text. Choose from the sentences A-F the one which fits each gap (1-5). There is one extra sentence which you don’t need to use.

One Man, 52 Jobs

1

The problem was that he wasn't sure what kind of work he wanted to do.

2

His father said he had worked his whole life doing a job he didn't really enjoy. Aiken wanted a different future. That night, he promised himself that he would find something that he was passionate¹ about.

3

That's 52 occupations in one year. And he did it! One week, as a dairy farmer, he milked cows every morning. Then, in another week, he was an astronomer studying the night sky. Aiken's favorite job, though, was teaching. He learned he was happiest when he was helping others.

4

OK to not know what you want to do right away. He wrote a book about his experiences, and today he tells his story to college and university students.

5

You'll find your perfect job one day. After all, Aiken found his.

- A. Aiken also learned that it's
- B. Aiken set a goal to work a new job each week for a year.
- C. He worked very hard.
- D. One night at the dinner table, his father encouraged him to do what he liked most.
- E. His message?

For each question, mark the correct letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet.

Lifelong Learning

When you graduate from high school or university, is learning finished? The answer is no. In many countries, people continue learning all their lives. Why is lifelong learning important? How can it help you?

Lifelong learning can be useful in many ways. People who want to change careers often return to study at a university. Some professions require employees to keep learning new ways to do things. For example, doctors and nurses must always learn about new illnesses and treatments. They must also practice the skills they have and keep learning new ones.

Lifelong learning can help people stay healthy and independent. Many older people also feel that lifelong learning helps them stay close to young people. Lots of older people are now learning how to use computers.

"I want to remain active . . . for my own health," said Mr. Salinas, a 91-year-old man taking computer classes. "I see my computer learning as . . . part of an active life and something that I can share . . . with my family."
