

SKILLS FOR READING

Can you join us?

Learn to write an informal invitation

1. Read Felipe's email to his friend Carlos.

Family party

From: FelipeB215@cup.org

To: CGarcia12@supermail.com

Hi Carlos,

1 How are you? Hope the family's well.

2 In December it's our family party again, and we all plan to meet in Cuenca as usual.

3 The party is on Friday, December 14th at night. 4 Would you like to come? I hope so, as I'd love to see you. 5 Sergio (you know, my friend from school) says he has a spare bedroom, so you can stay at his house. 6 Please let me know if you would like to join us.

I hope you can come!

Felipe

2. Read Felipe's email to Carlos again. In which of sentences 1-6 does he... ?

- a. [4] invite Carlos
- b. [] ask how he is
- c. [] ask him to reply
- d. [] give the reason for his message
- e. [] talk about where to stay
- f. [] give details of dates

3. Check (✓) the correct questions to invite people.

- a. Can you come? ☐
- b. Can you join? ☐
- c. Can you join us? ☐
- d. Can you to join us? ☐
- e. Would you like come? ☐
- f. Would you like to come? ☐
- g. Would you like to join us? ☐

4. Put the words in the correct order. Add question marks (?) and periods (.)

a. things / are / how

b. you / see / to / be / it / would / great

c. hope / it / can / you / make

d. to / I'd / you / love / see

e. are / you / how

f. I / can / come / you / hope
