

4 Label the adjectives with the correct numbers.

1 = opinion 2 = length/size 3 = type 4 = colour

Helen: It's boring here. Let's play movie characters.

Elaine: OK. He's an (1) ugly, (2) small creature with
(3) big, (4) blue eyes and a (4) big,
(4) bald head.

Helen: Gollum.

Elaine: Very good. Your turn.

Helen: They are (1) tall, (1) blue people with
(1) strange, (1) big ears.

Elaine: The Na'vi from Avatar. What about this one?
He's a (1) nice, old man with (1) long,
(1) straight, (1) grey hair and a long beard.

Helen: Gandalf?

Elaine: It could be. Or Dumbledore. It's the same actor.

Helen: He's a (1) friendly, young boy with
(1) medium-length, (1) red hair.

Elaine: Ron Weasley. But he's 30 now and he's going bald! Try this one. He's a (1) handsome,
(1) well-built young man. He's got
(1) long, (1) straight, (1) brown hair
but then he cuts it short.

Helen: Jacob from Twilight. My turn.

Elaine: Here's our bus. Come on. You can tell me when we sit down.

6 Rewrite the sentences using more polite forms.

British people are shy.

British people aren't very confident.

1 The boys in my class are funny.

2 My brother is negative about other people.

3 This film is boring.

4 The new student is unsociable.

5 Those girls are unkind.