For questions 21 – 27, match the information from a lesson plan on the past simple with the lesson plan headings listed A – D.

Mark the correct letter (A – D) on your answer sheet.

You will need to use some of the options more than once.

Lesson plan headings

- | | |
|----------|----------------------|
| A | Lesson aims |
| B | Personal aims |
| C | Anticipated problems |
| D | Procedure |

Information from a lesson plan on the past simple

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| 21 | Learners may say the auxiliary 'do' in the past simple question form. |
| 22 | Remember to make instructions suitable for learners' level. |
| 23 | Learners discuss previous holidays in groups. |
| 24 | Increase variety to keep energy levels high. |
| 25 | Learners will use the past simple instead of the base form in questions. |
| 26 | Give more encouragement in group work activities. |
| 27 | Learners will increase the number of verbs they know for holiday activities. |

For questions 28 – 34, match the ways of assessing with the main focuses of assessment listed A – H.

Mark the correct letter (A – H) on your answer sheet.

There is one extra option which you do not need to use.

Main focuses of assessment

- A use of proofreading skills
- B ability to read intensively
- C knowledge of layout of a written text
- D ability to write fluently
- E awareness of register of a text
- F use of turn-taking skills
- G ability to infer attitude from a text
- H knowledge of functional language

Ways of assessing

- 28 Ask students to find five new collocations in a leaflet about London.
- 29 Ask students to fill gaps in a leaflet about London with the correct adjective taken from pairs of formal/informal adjectives.
- 30 Ask students how they think the people who wrote different emails feel about London.
- 31 Give students a list of features such as pictures, headings and maps, and ask them to note down which features they would find in a leaflet about London.
- 32 Give students an email about London and ask them to write the corrections for any spelling mistakes.
- 33 Put students who like different kinds of films in pairs. Ask them to discuss and compare their tastes in films.
- 34 Ask students to write down five ways of inviting someone on a trip to London.

For questions 35 – 40, read the stages of a listening lesson about places (on the following page) and fill in the missing stages from the options listed A – F.

Mark the correct letter (A – F) on your answer sheet.

Missing stages

- | | |
|----------|---|
| A | Learners look at a list of statements about the two countries and they try to decide if the statements are true or false. |
| B | Learners find a partner from the other group and they help each other to complete a worksheet with the information about the countries. |
| C | Learners check their answers with their partner. Then the teacher conducts whole class feedback to prepare for a reading. |
| D | Learners listen for gist to a recording of people giving their opinion on two different places and decide which places are being described. |
| E | Learners make a poster advertising the place they have chosen. |
| F | In pairs, learners decide which words are connected with the countryside and which are connected with cities. |

Stages of a listening lesson

	♦ The teacher writes trees, businessman, cars, houses, fields, farmer, office, etc. on the board.
35	...
	♦ The teacher conducts feedback and corrects learners' pronunciation.
	♦ Learners look at a picture of the countryside and a picture of the city and label the pictures using the words they have learned.
36	...
	♦ Learners look at four short descriptions of places and decide which two texts match the pictures they have labelled.
	♦ Learners check their answers with their partner, then share their answers in open class.
37	...
	♦ Learners check their answers in pairs, then share their answers in open class.
	♦ Learners listen for detail to a recording of people giving their opinion on the two different places and fill in detailed information in a table.
	♦ Learners check their answers in pairs, then share their answers in open class.
	♦ The teacher explains that the focus of the lesson will now change from places to countries.
	♦ The teacher writes Australia and Argentina on the board and elicits information about them from the learners.
38	...
	♦ Learners check their answers from recordings: half of the class listen to a recording about Australia and the other half listen to a recording about Argentina.
39	...
	♦ In pairs, learners decide which country they would like to visit.
40	...
	♦ Learners display their work around the room.

For questions 41 – 47, match the dictionary tasks that a teacher gave her students with their main purposes listed A – H.

Mark the correct letter (A – H) on your answer sheet.

There is one extra option which you do not need to use.

Main purposes

- A to help students consider the meaning of words very closely
- B to help students understand how a dictionary identifies parts of speech
- C to help students notice how a dictionary shows stronger syllables in a word
- D to help students search for idioms successfully
- E to help students notice compound words
- F to help students understand how a dictionary shows verb patterns
- G to help students check for correct vowel sounds
- H to help students focus on register

Dictionary tasks

- 41 The teacher gave students feedback on their homework, referring them to the dictionary to correct their examples, such as: He worked very hardly; She sang beautiful.
- 42 The teacher asked students to look up some expressions from a transcript to find out about formality, e.g. You're joking!
- 43 The teacher asked students to underline the key words in different phrases, e.g. No! You're pulling my leg!; She's the apple of her father's eye. before finding them in the dictionary.
- 44 The teacher asked students to complete a gap-fill, e.g. I tried _____ (do sport) last year but I didn't like it, before checking in the dictionary.
- 45 The teacher asked students to focus on pronunciation problems after a speaking activity, e.g. field /fild/, river /ri:vɜ:/, peach /pitʃ/, by asking them to look the words up.
- 46 The teacher asked students to look up adjectives which are often confused, e.g. lonely and alone; excited and nervous.
- 47 The teacher asked students to complete a grid of word families, e.g. photograph, photographer and photographic. Students then looked up the words to mark the word stress.

For questions 48 – 53, match the dictionary extracts with the explanations listed A – G.

Mark the correct letter (A – G) on your answer sheet.

There is one extra option which you do not need to use.

Explanations

- A common collocational words are given
- B this word must be followed by an object
- C the headword is classified in the same entry under different parts of speech
- D all meanings are given
- E a common error is included
- F only used in formal written language
- G this word cannot be used in the plural

Dictionary extracts
