

My last overseas business trip was a nightmare from start to finish. First of all, there was a delay on the way to the airport, as there was an accident on the .....<sup>1</sup>. When I got there, I found the lower level of the airport .....<sup>2</sup> was flooded. Next, my .....<sup>3</sup> was too big and heavy, so I had to check it in. When we arrived, the .....<sup>4</sup> was closed, and there were no cabs at all. After a long time trying to figure out the .....<sup>5</sup> and waiting in .....<sup>6</sup> for 40 minutes, we finally got a bus .....<sup>7</sup> and found the hotel. Then there was a problem with our room .....<sup>8</sup> and, would you believe it, the .....<sup>9</sup> wasn't working, and our rooms were on the fifth floor.
