

SKILL PRACTICE 3 – LISTENING (PART 2) & READING (PART 6)

I. LISTENING - PART 2: QUESTION - RESPONSE

Overview

There are a total of 30 items in Part 2 of the TOEIC test. For each item, you will hear a question or statement followed by three possible responses. You must choose the most appropriate response to the question or statement. You will not read the questions or statements or the responses; you will only hear them. They are not written anywhere on the page, so you must listen carefully.

The questions and statements are things you would hear in normal business or everyday situations, such as:

- Requests for information (Wh- and yes-no questions)
- Requests for help (polite requests)
- Statements of opinion
- Statements about problems

The questions and statements deal with topics such as:

- Personal information
- Office procedures
- Weather
- Everyday objects
- Schedules
- Plans
- Preferences, needs, and wants

Strategy Review

Remember, in the test...

- Listen carefully and pay particular attention to the beginning of each question. The first word or phrase is especially important. The beginning can help you identify the type of question (Wh-, yes/no, choice, etc.). Remember that sometimes you will hear a statement rather than a question.
- Think about the kind of response that might be appropriate. Decide what kind of response you need to listen for.

Questions beginning with ...	May ask about ...
What?	an activity (a meeting)
When?	a date/time, etc. (four o'clock)
Where?	a place (the airport)
Who?	a person / occupation (Mr. Smith / a dentist)

Why?	a reason (because I was sick)
Which?	an alternative (the red one)
How?	a method (by car)
How long?	duration (three days)
How often?	frequency (once a month)

- Listen carefully to all three answer choices. As you listen, eliminate any responses you are sure are incorrect. To help you eliminate incorrect responses:
  - try to remember details from the question or statement
  - check that the response matches the question type
  - do not be misled by distractors or responses that answer a different question.
- If you are not sure about the answer, don't waste time. Decide quickly! There is only a short pause of a few seconds between each question.

A. Information Questions

How – Why

- Questions with “How” ask about methods of doing something or directions to go somewhere.
- You must listen to the adjective or adverb following how since each one has a different meaning.
- The question word “Why” asks about the reason for an event, a condition, a problem, or a change of something. Responses to this question type will use because, because of, for + noun, or a to-infinitive phrase to provide a reason or cause.
- You must pay attention to the question Why don't you/we/I + verb? as it does not ask about a reason but is an invitation or a suggestion. You need to listen carefully to the main verb in the question.

Commonly used expressions
		Question	Answer
How + auxiliary/ modal verb + subject + main verb...?	Way to go somewhere	Q: How do I get to City Hall?	A: Take the subway. A: You can walk there.

II. READING - PART 6: TEXT COMPLETION

Overview

Part 6 of the Reading Test consists of four reading passages. Four sentences in each passage are incomplete. For each of these incomplete sentences, you will choose among four answer options. There is a total of 16 questions in this part of the test.

The reading passages include a variety of types like those you might see in common business or everyday contexts. They may be of the following types:

- E-mails
- Memos
- Notices
- Advertisements
- Letters
- Instructions
- Articles

The incomplete sentences in Part 6 are similar to the incomplete sentences in Part 5. The difference is that they are presented within the context of a passage, or text. To complete some of the items, you may have to look at the surrounding sentences in order to choose the correct answer option.

Strategy Review

Remember, in the test...

- Begin by previewing the passage. Don't stop when you see a blank. Keep reading. You should read quickly to get a general idea of the content.
- Carefully read each sentence with a blank. Decide if the focus is grammar or vocabulary. Then look more closely and ask yourself what exactly is being tested.
- Look at the words before and after the blank and try to identify the part of speech, and the meaning, of each missing word or phrase.
- Eliminate any answers that you are sure are wrong.
- Do not forget that sometimes you may need to look at other sentences elsewhere in the text to help you identify the correct answer.
- If you are not sure about the answer, don't waste time. Decide quickly and move on to the next item.

Practice Exercise:

Directions: Read the texts that follow. A word, phrase, or sentence is missing in parts of each text. Four answer choices for each question are given below the text. Select the best answer to complete the text. Then mark the letter (A), (B), (C), or (D) on your answer sheet.
