

Match the strengths and weaknesses with the personality types.

Strengths:	Weaknesses
Make thoughtful and careful decisions.	May have difficulty choosing a clear approach.
Balance talking and listening well.	Can struggle with being consistent in behavior.
Build strong relationships quickly.	May struggle in large social settings.
Good at communicating and motivating others.	May not listen carefully to others.
Excellent listeners and deep thinkers.	Can appear too quiet or distant.
Adapt to different situations and people.

1. Extroverts

○ Strengths:

-
-
- Comfortable in social and group settings.

○ Weaknesses:

-
- Can be too focused on being seen and heard.

2. Introverts

○ Strengths:

-
-
- Good at building trust with individuals.

○ Weaknesses:

-
-

3. Ambiverts

○ Strengths:

-
-
- Can be both outgoing and reflective.

○ Weaknesses:

-
-

A great leader can an extrovert, an introvert, or an ambivert. Extroverts are good talking and making people feel excited. Introverts are good at listening and thinking carefully making decisions. Ambiverts are the middle; they can talk and well. A great leader is about being one type. It is about understanding people, working, and helping the team succeed.