Homework

Everyone has decided on the area and period in history they will concentrate on.

Dennis: school life, Polina: fashion, Sasha: House and Home, Matvei: Toys and Games.

Research and write about your exhibit. Make sure to use past simple, past perfect, and used to to complete the homework.

Here are some questions you can use to answer and come up with your response: (You don't have to use all the questions. Just pick a few to guide you)

1. What was commonly done or practiced in the past related to your topic?
2. How did people approach this activity/idea/trend during the period you have selected?
3. What significant change has happened looking at things now?
4. When and how did a major shift or innovation occur?
5. What had people been doing before a significant change took place?
6. What habits or trends had already developed before new advancements?
7. What practices or traditions had people continued despite new developments?
