

Travel Collocations

Uses of just

1. Complete the travel collocations with the verbs below.

do	get	go	have	help	light	put up	sleep	taste	travel
----	-----	----	------	------	-------	--------	-------	-------	--------

_____ away from it all	_____ a lovely view
_____ light	_____ the tent
_____ some volunteer work	_____ a campfire
_____ someone with their bags	_____ a local dish
_____ off the beaten track	_____ rough

2. Complete the text with travel collocations from task 1.

IF YOU ARE A TRAVELLER, NOT A TOURIST – IF YOU LIKE TO 1 _____ RATHER THAN FOLLOW THE CROWDS –
THEN COME TO ICELAND FOR A WHOLE NEW EXPERIENCE!

Iceland is wild and exciting and you can really forget about home and just ² _____ in this breathtaking environment. Stay in some of our lovely little hotels and you can ³ _____ of ice-capped mountains from your window. Then join us to go whale watching, or fishing in frozen lakes. You can ⁴ _____ on the lakeshore to cook your freshly caught fish and take a sleeping bag to sleep under the stars! Or you can ⁵ _____ in one of the many wonderful restaurants, if you prefer. Afterwards, you can relax outside in a volcanic hot tub!

3. Match each use of the word just (A-D) with its meaning (1-4) in the Learn this! box.

LEARN THIS! Uses of just

The adverb just has many different uses in conversational English.

- 1 for emphasis This coffee's just so good!
- 2 only I just need to finish my homework.
- 3 for politeness Could you just open a window?
- 4 close to the time I saw him just before he left.

- A I just have this small bag. _____
- B Could I just ask you a question? _____
- C I just made the 4.55 train, after all! _____
- D It's just amazing! _____

4. Add just in the correct place in the sentences; choose the purpose of using just in each sentence.

1. I have a short time. _____
2. Could you close the door? _____
3. I got to the train in time. _____
4. It's amazing! _____
5. He has left. _____
6. We have to buy milk now. _____
7. This film's so funny! _____
8. Could you repeat your name? _____