

Activity 1: Listening and Fill-in-the-Blanks

Instructions:

Listen carefully to the audio. After listening, fill in the blanks with the correct verb form in the Simple Past. Pay attention to the context of each sentence to select the appropriate verb.

Audio:

Yesterday, I _____ (organize) my books on the shelf because they were very messy.

I _____ (accompany) my friend to the concert in the evening.

In the afternoon, we _____ (attempt) to fix the old radio.

I _____ (navigate) through the crowded streets to find the café.

We _____ (celebrate) my sister's birthday with a big party.

My cousin _____ (participate) in a dance competition last weekend.

I _____ (research) a new topic for my history project yesterday.

We _____ (appreciate) the quiet atmosphere of the park.

I _____ (wander) around the city center last summer, discovering hidden spots.

My colleagues _____ (volunteer) to help organize the charity event.

Activity 2: Time Travel Challenge

Instructions:

You found a diary from 60 years ago. Below is a page from the diary, but some parts are missing. Complete the blanks with the correct form of the verbs in Simple Past. After that, answer the questions and write 9-10 sentences imagining what the writer felt that day.

Diary Entry:

1. Yesterday, I _____ (decorate) the hall for the festival.
2. Everyone _____ (gather) around to see the lanterns we _____ (prepare) last week.
3. In the afternoon, I _____ (assist) my mother in the kitchen, and she _____ (teach) me how to make bread.
4. Later, we _____ (explore) the nearby fields, and I _____ (collect) flowers for the evening feast.
5. By the end of the day, I _____ (reflect) on how much I had learned and _____ (appreciate) the simple joys of the day.
6. After dinner, my father _____ (share) stories about his youth, which we all _____ (enjoy) deeply.

Question example :

- How do you think the writer felt during the festival preparation?
- Which activity might have been the most rewarding for them?
- How might the stories shared by the father have inspired the writer?

Activity 3: Secret Message Hunt.

Instructions:

Write a short story using exactly 10 regular verbs in the Simple Past. Your story should describe an exciting, mysterious, or funny event. Use your imagination! Then, share your story with a partner, who will try to decode the secret message.

Step 1: Write Your Story

- Include 10 regular verbs in the Simple Past in your story.
- Underline or highlight the verbs after you finish writing.
- Example:: Write about a surprise adventure you had last weekend.

Step 2: Decode the Secret Message

- The first letter of each regular verb in your partner's story forms the secret message. Can you figure it out?
- Example's story:

Last weekend, I baked a cake for a picnic. My brother enjoyed helping me, and we helped our mom prepare sandwiches together. Later, we arranged a table in the park and played soccer with our cousins. After that, we prepared lemonade and snacks. Finally, we yawned from exhaustion but smiled because it was such a lovely day.

Secret Message: BE HAPPY

(from Baked, Enjoyed, Helped, Arranged, Played, Prepared, Yawned)

Step 3: Talk to your partner about their story. Then, ask them 3 questions about their story. After that, switch roles and let your partner ask you the 3 questions (talking, not written). Then share the secret message you found on his/her story.

Question's example:

1. Why did the character bake the cake?
2. How did the characters feel when they played soccer?
3. What did they do after they prepared the lemonade?
