

1 Listen and complete

Every year, on the _____ in _____, our country recognizes the Martin Luther King Jr Day. This _____ was created in _____ to recognize Dr Martin Luther King Jr, his _____, his _____, and his _____.

2 Match the following words with the correct definitions.

(to) boycott civil rights discrimination dream justice leadership non-violence
peace (to) protest segregation speech (to) struggle

1-	A goal, an aim, an aspiration.
2-	The practice of refusing to use violent methods to have what you want.
3-	The legal practice or policy of creating separate facilities within the same society for the use of a minority group.
4-	Rights to personal liberty established by the 13 th and 14 th Amendments to the U.S Constitution for an individual or a minority group.
5-	Making a distinction in favor of or against a person or thing based on the group, class, or category to which that person or thing belongs rather than on individual merit.
6-	The quality that makes one a leader.
7-	To deal with a difficult problem or situation ; to work hard to solve a task or problem ; to make great effort.
8-	A public address.
9-	Righteousness, fairness, or moral rightness.
10-	A state of freedom from war or hostility.
11-	To refuse to buy, use, attend or deal with something as a means of protest.
12-	To express or declare one's objection to, disapproval of, or disagreement with (some act or action).

3 Complete the sentences below with the words above. Don't forget to conjugate the verbs.

- I've decided to _____ the canteen : the food is really disgusting !
- Mrs Matthew 's _____ is to visit Australia.
- This Math exercise is really difficult. I'm really _____ with it.
- Buddhists don't fight. They believe in _____
- Some people are refused some jobs because of the colour of their skin. This is called _____