

Past Simple

Look at these examples:

I worked yesterday.

I didn't work yesterday.

They played tennis last week.

They didn't play tennis last week.

When we say we didn't do something in the past we use didn't + a present simple verb. I didn't work last week.

We do not add 'ed' to the verbs- They didn't worked last week.

Turn these verbs in past back into verbs in present.

beat

was/were bent

began bit

became

Complete these sentences.

I saw Simon last week but I didn't _____ Tom.

They worked Monday but they didn't _____ Friday.

We went to the post office last week but we didn't _____ to the bank.

She did her maths homework Monday but didn't _____ her English homework.

She had a holiday last week but didn't _____ one the year before.

What did you do yesterday, write positive and negative sentences.

Example: I watched TV. I didn't play tennis.
