Listening 21. Listen to the children and write the jobs under the people.

So, what does your dad do, Holly? Guess.

He goes to town every day and he works in an (1) _____. He's got a big desk with a (2) _____ on it.

What does your dad do, David?

My dad works with (3) _____ and he spends all day outside in the (4) _____ near our house.

That sounds like a lovely job. And what about your mum? She goes to the (5) _____ and all the different places in and near our town. And she paints (6) _____ of everything she sees. She's got a (7) _____ in town and sometimes people (8) _____ the pictures she paints. She's very clever to do that. My mum's got a job a bit like that.

What does she do, George?

Well, she goes to see what's happening in the town and then she (9) _____ pictures of everything. And sometimes her photos are in the (10) _____.

Wow! What about your dad, George?

Oh, he's got a horrible job. He spends all day looking into people's (11) _____ and he looks after their (12) _____. Oh, I think that's an interesting job, actually.

What does your mum do, Helen?

She works at the (13) _____ in town and she looks after the (14) _____ there. She's very kind to them, but she has to wear a (15) _____ and I wouldn't want to do that.

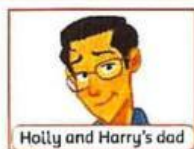

And what does your dad do, Helen?

Oh, he works outside and he builds (16) _____ and big (17) _____ over rivers.

Wow! That sounds like a wonderful job.

Perhaps I won't be a (18) _____ after all.
