

"DYSLEXIA" LISTENING

You will hear an interview with a woman called Kay Stanley, who is talking about a condition called dyslexia. Choose the best answer.

1 The Stanley Trust

- A helped Kay a lot when she was a child.
- B was started by Kay to help other people with dyslexia.
- C was founded by Katy's father.

2 How did Kay's parents first realize she had dyslexia?

- A She didn't know stories that other children could read.
- B Her mother found her memorizing audio books.
- C She couldn't spell words that other children know.

3 What was Kay told by an expert on dyslexia?

- A She has a milder form of the condition.
- B She will be able to overcome her problems by reading.
- C Spelling will always be a particular problem for her.

4 How does dyslexia affect the way people think?

- A It can make people think more creatively.
- B It prevents them from solving problems effectively.
- C It makes it harder for them to follow logic.

5 What made Kay work hard to improve her reading?

- A It was the only way she could study acting.
- B She didn't want people to think she was stupid.
- C Her father encouraged her.

6 Kay feels the children with dyslexia should

- A attend special schools.
- B have special training to help them read.
- C be treated like all other children at school.

7 How does Kay want to publicize the problem of dyslexia?

- A by acting in a film about the subject.
- B by giving talks to parents of dyslexic children.
- C by setting a positive example.

