

You _____ to afternoon radio with me, Angela Hassan.

(listen)

After the break, the phone lines will be open and we _____ whether we've reached breaking point with our daily commute.

(discuss)

I've got bad news, I'm afraid, for those who _____ to get home on the M79 motorway this evening. (try)

Queues _____ and there's already a tailback of about three kilometres. (form)

People _____ something more productive than just staring into space. (can do)

It worries me that wifi now means that our daily lives _____

by work. (increasingly / take over)

No, I _____ about doing something creative. (talk)

I _____ the same train for about two years and I'd see the same people a lot of the time. (take)

We ended up talking about a book we _____. (read)