English Speaking Contest

Fifteen-year-old Chloe Smith talks about an exciting English contest.

Last month, I got a chance to take part in an English speaking contest in America. It was my first international trip, which was exciting, but I was a little bit nervous. I joined a team with two students from Japan and France. We had one week to prepare for the final contest. During that week, we had a chance to attend a preparation club. There were so many interesting activities in our club. We learned and practiced vocabulary through games and activities. We could also practice listening and speaking skills by doing presentations or small chats. We listened to each other and corrected the mistakes. It was really exciting. In the evening, my team and I went to a market to meet local people as well as practice speaking English. On the day of the contest, our group talked about how to learn English from movies and we won the first prize. I will never forget that contest. The trip was like a holiday, but I also learned new things about learning English.
