Name: _____ Date: _____

StartUp Level 3 Unit 3, Lesson 1, Page 30

Participial adjectives

A Complete the sentences. Circle the correct answers.

1. Try SkinSoft. We promise you won't be disappointed / disappointing. Millions of satisfied / satisfying customers can't be wrong!
2. Thirsty? Drink a Snapper, the refreshed / refreshing diet soda, and feel completely energized / energizing.
3. When your life is exhausted / exhausting and you feel tired / tiring all the time, take VitaPure. You'll be amazed / amazing at the difference our vitamins can make.
4. Are you looking for a magazine that doesn't have an annoyed / annoying advertisement on every page? Pick up a copy of our excited / exciting new magazine for all the excited / exciting news about your favorite celebrities.

B Complete the sentences. Change the underlined verbs to adjectives with -ing and -ed.

1. This game doesn't interest me.
   I'm not _____ in this game.
   This game isn't _____.
2. Many companies say their products will amaze you.
   The products aren't really _____.
   You won't really be _____.
3. Most TV commercials bore me.
   I usually feel _____ when a commercial comes on.
   I find most commercials _____.
4. Frozen dinners don't satisfy me.
   Frozen dinners aren't _____.
   I don't feel _____ after eating a frozen dinner.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Name: _____ Date: _____

StartUp Level 3 Unit 3, Lesson 2, Page 32

Present perfect for past experiences

A Amy has graduated from college and is starting a job search. Read her list. Then write sentences about what she has and hasn't done.

- [x] finish my résumé
- [ ] post my résumé online
- [x] look at jobs sites
- [ ] contact an employment agency
- [x] talk to the job counselor at school
- [x] register for a jobs fair
- [ ] ask for references
- [ ] practice my interview skills

1. She has _____.
2. She hasn't _____.
3. _____.
4. _____.
5. _____.
6. _____.
7. _____.
8. _____.

B Complete the sentences. Use the present perfect. Use the negative form when necessary. Use contractions when possible.

1. I _____ (hear) from the manager yet. If I don't hear from her this week, I'll call her again.
2. Mr. Hook _____ (get) your résumé yet. He won't contact you until he gets it.
3. I think that someone _____ (take) the job already. I'll call you if it's still available.
4. I _____ (give) your résumé to my boss. He'll call you if he is interested.
5. We _____ (see) your résumé yet. We can't schedule an interview until we see it.
6. He _____ (find) a job already. But we'll help you find someone else.
7. I _____ (interview) three people already.
8. No one _____ (hire) me yet, so I'm still looking.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Name: _____ Date: _____

StartUp Level 3 Unit 3, Lesson 3, Page 34

Ability / Inability in the past

A Rewrite the sentences. If possible, change can to be able to and be able to to can. If the sentence can't be changed, write ø. Keep the same meaning.

1. I couldn't access my email from home.

   _____

2. We were able to install all the software.

   _____

3. He couldn't operate the remote control.

   _____

4. My friends were able to make a short film at home.

   _____

5. I could send email, but I wasn't able to open my messages.

   _____

6. I'm sorry, but we couldn't fix your TV.

   _____

7. The police officers weren't able to find the criminal.

   _____

8. Even my teacher couldn't solve that problem!

   _____

B Complete the sentences. Use was/were + able to or could and the words in parentheses.

1. I _____ (fix) your computer. It's working fine now.
2. Sorry, I didn't reply to your email. I _____ (not, access) my email yesterday.
3. My old computer _____ (play) CDs, but this laptop doesn't have a CD player.
4. I _____ (operate) a computer when I was just three years old.
5. The hotel _____ (not, find) your wallet. Are you sure you left it there?
6. Mr. Parker _____ (visit) us in Mexico City. He said he'd see us in New York, too.
7. We _____ (not, travel) much when we were kids, so we try to visit more places now.
8. Did you pay your tuition online? No, I _____ (not, enter) my credit card number. I'll ask for help at school tomorrow.

LIVEWORKSHEETS