PART 5

Living with parents

Person A

If I had the money, I would move out immediately. All I want is somewhere that's my own, where I can do what I want, where I can have my own furniture and pictures, where no one can tell me what to do. If it was my place, I'd be happy to do the cleaning and things like that, I would look after it. But at the moment it's just a dream, because I can't find a job.

Person B

I'm perfectly happy living at home. If I lived on my own, I'd have to pay rent, do the housework, and the cooking. Here my mother does my washing, she cleans my room, and of course she cooks, and her food is wonderful. I have a nice room, I have my computer where I can watch TV ... Why would I want to leave? Even if I could afford it, I wouldn't move out. Not until I get married ...

Person C

It isn't that my parents aren't good to me, they are. If they weren't, I wouldn't live with them. But I just don't feel independent. I'm 29, but I sometimes worry that if I come back very late after a night out, I'll find them still awake waiting up for me. It's never happened, but it still makes me want to move out. Besides, it is a bit awkward to meet my friends at my parents' home.

Person D

I'd love to move out. I get on well with my parents, but I think I'd get on with them even better if I didn't live at home. My mother drives me mad - it isn't her fault, but she does. And I'd really like to have a dog, but my mother is allergic to them. I need to find my own place and visiting my parents from time to time will be

1. It is much better to live with the parents. _____
2. He/she will have a pet when he/she moves out. _____
3. It is uncomfortable to get late at home. _____
4. He/she will move out as soon as he/she gets a job. _____
5. His/her mother is an excellent cook. _____
6. Moving out would improve his/her relationship with his/her parents. _____
7. His/her home's design and decoration would be different. _____
