

Pakistan International School, Jeddah

Live Worksheet

Answer the following questions.

1. What is the primary purpose of Zakah in Islam?

- a) To help the poor and needy
- b) To purify wealth
- c) To gain rewards in the afterlife
- d) All of the above

2. How much is the minimum percentage of wealth a Muslim must give as Zakah?

- a) 1%
- b) 2.5%
- c) 5%
- d) 10%

3. Zakah is obligatory on a Muslim who possesses wealth above a certain threshold. What is this threshold called?

- a) Nisaab
- b) Hajj
- c) Iman
- d) Fitr

4. Which of the following is NOT eligible to receive Zakah?

- a) Poor
- b) Orphans
- c) Non-Muslims
- d) Debtors

5. Zakah must be paid annually on which type of wealth?

- a) Only gold
- b) Only income

- c) Savings and wealth that has been in possession for one year
- d) Only Land

6. What is the main difference between Zakah and Sadaqah?

- a) Zakah is voluntary, while Sadaqah is obligatory
- b) Sadaqah is mandatory, while Zakah is optional
- c) Zakah is obligatory, while Sadaqah is voluntary
- d) There is no difference

7. Which of the following types of wealth is Zakah due on?

- a) Income from wages
- b) Gold and silver
- c) Stocks and investments
- d) All of the above

8. When should Zakah be paid?

- a) At the start of Ramadan
- b) After the Hajj pilgrimage
- c) Once a year, when the wealth reaches the Nisab
- d) Only during times of crisis

9. Which of the following is a benefit of giving Zakah?*

- a) It purifies wealth
- b) It increases wealth
- c) It removes all sins
- d) It guarantees success in this life

10. Who is exempt from paying Zakah?

- a) A poor person with no savings
- b) A businessman with excess wealth
- c) A farmer with large land holdings
- d) A child who inherits wealth