

Fill in the gaps with the correct future tense

She _____ (not attend) the meeting next Monday because she's on holiday.

By the time you get home, I _____ (already cook) dinner.

What _____ (he/do) if the plan doesn't work?

This time next week, we _____ (sail) around the Greek islands.

The shop _____ (close) at 8 PM on Mondays.

I _____ (not be) at the party tomorrow because I have a prior commitment.

By 2025, scientists _____ (make) significant progress in renewable energy.

_____ (we/wait) for the package all morning tomorrow?

I _____ (be) at the gym at 7 AM tomorrow if you want to join me.

How long _____ (you/work) here by the end of this year?

He _____ (probably not win) the competition without proper training.

By the end of this decade, the company _____ (expand) into at least five more countries.

They _____ (not use) the conference room tomorrow, so we can book it.

_____ (you/take) part in the event next Saturday?

By the time the train arrives, we _____ (wait) for an hour.

She _____ (start) her new job next week; she's very excited.

By 9 PM, they _____ (watch) movies for five hours straight.

When _____ (the course/end)?

He _____ (not apply) for the job because it doesn't suit his qualifications.

What _____ (you/do) this weekend?

By this time tomorrow, I _____ (present) the report to the board.

_____ (she/travel) abroad next summer, or does she have other plans?

_____ (you/still/work) on the assignment when I call?

The next bus _____ (arrive) in 10 minutes, so we'd better hurry.

How many years _____ (he/teach) by the time he retires?

I _____ (not call) you until I have all the necessary details.

This time next month, we _____ (renovate) the entire house.

Who _____ (lead) the team in the upcoming project?

_____ (it/be) sunny tomorrow, or should we cancel the hike?

He _____ (not recover) from his injury before the championship.

How long _____ (they/live) in this city by next spring?

She _____ (attend) a workshop this afternoon.

By next Friday, the engineers _____ (complete) the final phase of the bridge.

_____ (we/have) dinner together tomorrow evening?

I _____ (not send) the email until I double-check it.

Look at the sky! It _____ (rain) any moment now.