

Watch the episode and tick the correct sentences

- 1.The United States is one of the worst offenders.
- 2.Consumers aren't sure what quality products look like.
- 3.Many supermarkets adopted a system called 'open dating'.
- 4.Many foods are safe to eat far beyond their label dates.
- 5.Refrigerated eggs are good for up to nine weeks.
- 6.Nearly 60% said they tossed any food past those dates.
- 7.Grocers could also try removing date labels on produce.
- 8.The best way to prevent food waste is to buy less.