

online tracking, sell out, owe, good value, budget, label, free delivery (2), high-end, shipping cost, purchase, refund, fitting room

Every year, as the holiday season approaches, many stores prepare special advertising campaigns for Black Friday. It's a day when a lot of people look for _____(1) deals and discounts. Some stores have a big _____(2) to promote their products, and they use advertisements on TV and online.

On Black Friday, you might find yourself waiting outside a store before it opens. Once inside, you hurry to the _____(3) to try on clothes and make sure they fit. If you like what you try on, you check the price _____(4) to see if the item is as cheap as you expected. Sometimes, popular items _____(5) quickly, so it's important to act fast.

Some people prefer shopping online because it can be more convenient. With online shopping, there might be no need to wait in line, and some stores offer _____(6) on Black Friday. Additionally, they provide _____(7) so you know when to expect your package. However, it's important to check the _____(8) if free delivery is not offered.

When shopping, it's also smart to make sure you don't _____(9) more money than you planned to spend. Always remember your limits, so you don't regret any _____(10) later. If you are not happy with what you bought, most stores allow a _____(11). This means you can return the item and get your money back.

Some shoppers enjoy buying _____(12) products that they can't usually afford. These products can seem more affordable thanks to Black Friday discounts. Whether buying in-store or online, customers look for _____(13) and hope to find great deals during this exciting shopping event.

Match the definitions to the vocabulary words:

1. when items are being sold at lower prices than usual.
2. doing something incorrectly or accidentally, not on purpose.
3. agreeing to do something only if certain requirements are met.
4. to be prepared for a possible situation or event that might happen.
5. considering everything; generally speaking.
6. happening during the same period or moment as something else.
7. not possible or acceptable under any circumstances.
8. before a particular time or event occurs.
9. no longer current or relevant; old-fashioned.
10. looking quickly at something without studying it closely.
11. arriving or completing something before a deadline or scheduled time.
12. certainly; with complete assurance and no uncertainty.

Complete the following sentences with one of the missing words:

1. The new ___ in town features an advertisement for the upcoming concert.
2. I scheduled a ___ with my doctor to make sure everything is okay.
3. Don't forget to bring your ___ to pay for the online subscription.
4. She wears comfortable clothes for her ___ errands around the city.
5. His grandmother's cookies are always ___ and taste amazing.
6. The ___ on the jacket shows it's on sale for 50% off.
7. He is a ___ entrepreneur who built his business from the ground up.

at the same time, out of date, without doubt, on the whole, in time, in advance, out of the question, in case, at a glance, on condition, by mistake, in the sales

Self-made, homemade, credit card, price tag, billboard, everyday, check-up