FUNCTIONAL LANGUAGE
EXPRESS PREFERENCES AND GIVE REASONS

Complete conversations 1-4 with sentences a-h.

1 A: Lisa, have a look at these two hotels I've found online. _____

  B: Both of them look nice. You can choose, _____?

2 A: Hey, Marvin, where would you rather be — in the city or in the countryside?

  B: _____ Cities are stressful and there's not much to do in the countryside.

  A: So where would you prefer to be?

  B: _____

3 A: Fran, we'd love you to come on holiday with us this summer to 'Beach Bay' caravan park.

  B: Thanks, Mum, but to be honest, Beach Bay looks very quiet. _____

  A: Really? I think you'd love it. It's right by the sea. _____

4 A: Dan, if you don't want to go to a Greek island where do you want to go on holiday?

  B: _____

  A: Why would you like to go to a city?

  B: _____

a Neither of them are my kind of place, to be honest.
b I don't think it's my kind of place.
c Wed have lots to see and do, whereas on an island we'd be stuck in one place.
d I'd rather be by the beach.
e Which one do you prefer?
f I don't have any strong feelings either way.
g You could probably go diving there.
h If it was just up to me, I'd go to London.