

Fill in the fifteen spaces in this following paragraph. There can be from one to three words in each space.

It's the trailer of a film entitled . In this trailer, we can see the main character or hero whose name is . In the first scene, he sits on a and he talks to people. He also offers to the people sitting next to him. When at school, the hero is considered as a pupil. Once, in the school bus, he meets a girl named . They become . As a child, he dances as one famous American singer called . During his life, he has different occupations or . As he runs very fast, he is recruited by the University American football team to be a . As he helps his team to win, he meets the US President called . Then, he is hired or recruited by the army to become a . After that, he becomes a . And finally, his last occupation is and captain of a boat. They fish .