David's Dream

David often had dreams about adventures in dangerous places. Last Sunday night, he had a really fantastic dream.

He was climbing a mountain. He was so high, there were clouds below him. Above him, he saw an eagle's nest in a hole in the rock. There were two white eggs inside. David didn't touch them, but when his right hand was near to the nest, an eagle appeared. Its wings were enormous. That was scary!

Then David saw the entrance to a really deep, dark cave. He moved carefully and quietly past it but then a huge brown bear jumped out and made a frightening noise. David hurried up the mountain. That bear had big teeth and very strong legs.

When David got to the top of the mountain, he saw some grass and lay down on it. He was really tired and was soon asleep. Then he heard someone say, 'Wake up, David. Wake up!'

David opened his eyes and saw his mother.

'I had another amazing dream about a mountain, Mum,' he said.

'That's strange!' David's mother answered. 'Because it's the first day of your summer holidays today and we're going to do something very special.'

Part 3: Questions 14-18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

A visit to the library

Sarah enjoys spending her weekends at the local library. It has a wide collection of books, including novels, magazines, and e-books, as well as computers that she can use for her school projects. She started going to the library with her parents when she was a child, and now she visits on her own almost every Saturday.

The library has a dedicated area for teenagers, where Sarah likes to meet her friends. They often talk about their favorite books and suggest new ones for each other. Recently, Sarah joined a creative writing workshop organized by the library, where she learns how to write short stories. She finds it very inspiring to hear feedback from other members of the group.

The library has also introduced a digital service for borrowing e-books, which Sarah loves because it allows her to access books on her phone at any time. She thinks this feature is very useful, especially when she is too busy to visit the library in person.

Sarah believes libraries are important, not only for books but also for building a sense of community. She hopes her library will continue to grow and help others discover the joy of reading.

Questions:

14. Why did Sarah first start visiting the library?

    A. She wanted to borrow books.

    B. Her parents took her there as a child.

    C. She wanted to join the book club.

15. What does Sarah enjoy most about the library now?

    A. Talking with her friends in the teen area

    B. Using the computers for schoolwork

    C. Borrowing books from the children's section

16. How does Sarah feel about the creative writing workshop?

    A. She prefers reading instead of writing.

    B. She is inspired by the feedback she receives.

    C. She finds it boring to write stories.

17. Why does Sarah find the digital e-book service useful?

    A. It allows her to read books anytime, anywhere.

    B. It helps her borrow books from other libraries.

    C. It suggests new books for her to try.

18. What does Sarah hope will happen in the future?

    A. The library will focus more on e-books.

    B. She can organize events at the library.

    C. The library will continue to help others.
