

Term IIISummative assessment for the unit "Travel and Transport"*Variant II*Learning objectives

- 8.4.4.1 read a growing range of extended fiction and non-fiction texts on familiar and some unfamiliar general and curricular topics
- 8.6.9.1 use appropriately a variety of active and passive simple present and past forms and past perfect simple forms in narrative and reported speech on a range of familiar general and curricular topics
- 8.5.6.1 link, independently, sentences into coherent paragraphs using a variety of basic connectors on a range of familiar general topics and some curricular topics

Assessment criteria

- Summarize the ideas in the extended fiction and non-fiction texts by finding the main information and specific details
- Demonstrate the ability to write grammatically correct sentences on familiar topics
- Write a text keeping appropriate format and plan of a given genre
- Use punctuation marks in the sentences properly

Level of thinking skills

Knowledge and comprehension, Application

Duration

20 minutes

ReadingTask 1. Read the texts and choose the correct word to complete the gaps.*[6]

- | | | |
|--------------|----------|-----------|
| 1 A at | B in | C on |
| 2 A busy | B busier | C busiest |
| 3 A above | B over | C more |
| 4 A when | B until | C since |
| 5 A building | B build | C built |
| 6 A This | B These | C Those |

AIRPORT TERMINALS Around the WorldNew York International Airport

New York City is a destination that most people want to visit at least once in their lives and if you are lucky enough to travel there, your plane will probably land 1) John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK Airport). Its construction started in 1943 when it became clear that the city's first major airport, La Guardia Airport, was simply too small for such a 2) city! The major airlines that were going to use the airport, designed the airport's terminals, and so each terminal at the airport is unique. After five years, in July 1948, the first passenger flight left the airport. Its official name was New York International Airport, but in December 1963, two months after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, people started using the new name out of respect for the late president. Now, 3) 53 million passengers pass through JFK Airport each year!

Astana International Airport

Astana is one of the most modern and exciting cities in the world. With its striking architecture and huge open boulevards, it's a unique travel destination. If you're one of the thousands of tourists visiting Astana every year, then you'll probably arrive in the Astana International Airport. Although there has been an airport in Astana 4) 1931, they started 5) the amazing structure we see today in 1997. In 2005, the new passenger terminal designed by Kisho Kurokawa opened. 6) days, it is one of the busiest airports in Central Asia with almost four million passengers passing under its beautiful blue dome every year. A new terminal was opened in June 2017 for EXPO, Kazakhstan.

Task 2. Answer the questions in your own words.

[4]

- 1 What is the text about and where? _____
- 2 What are they called? _____
- 3 When did they open? _____
- 4 How many people use them every year? _____

Use of English

Task 3. Complete the passive sentences with the verbs in brackets.

[5]

- 1 In 2016, the skull of the Siberian unicorn _____ (find) in the Pavlodar region of Kazakhstan.
- 2 In the same year, mammoth bones _____ (discover) by a local shepherd in a village near Taiynsha.
- 3 The museum of Nature in Almaty _____ (build) in the late 1950s.
- 4 Horses _____ (domesticate) about 5,500 years ago.
- 5 The images in the Chauvet cave in France _____ (not paint) by the Neanderthals.

Writing

[5]

Task 4. Choose ONE topic and write.

Topic 1: Imagine you visited London. Write an email to your English friend (120 – 180 words). Write about the city and your impressions of the trip.

Use the present perfect tense and the passive voice. Follow the plan.

Para 1: Where have you been? Who with?

Para 2: What have you seen? (Geographical features, sightseeings)

Para 3: What have you done there? (The weather, the hotel, the means of transport, the trip, the souvenirs)

Para 4: Suggest visiting the place and why

Topic 2: Write a short article about a nature reserve in your country or in another country for the English school magazine (120-180 words). Use and the passive voice. Give your article a catchy title. Follow the plan.

Para 1: what is the place of natural beauty (name, location)

Para 2: geographical features (lakes, rivers, waterfalls, valleys, etc)

Para 3: plants and animals (flowers, trees, birds, etc)

Para 4: suggest visiting the place