

→ Recap : Christmas traditions in Britain

December the 1st is the beginning of Advent.

In December, as Christmas is getting close, people go singing

Ch _____ ca _____

Donated every _____ year by Norway(Norvège), the Trafalgar Square _____

_____ (in London) symbolizes the spirit of Christmas. People also decorate their houses with _____  and _____ .

They write Christmas cards _____

On Christmas Eve, children go to bed early and hang up their _____ hoping that _____ will fill (remplir) them with

_____

They leave some biscuits and drink for Santa and a carrot for his _____

The next morning, they open their presents.

On Christmas Day, people usually have their Christmas meal at lunch-time and there are _____  on the table .

Roast _____  and Christmas _____

 are served.

