

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

ADJECTIVES

A. Put a tick to the adjectives which are positive.

1 dingy

2 bright

3 run-down

4 quiet

5 safe

6 cramped

7 comfortable

8 cozy

GRAMMAR: EVALUATIONS AND COMPARISONS

B. Read and choose the correct sentence.

1

There isn't enough chairs to sit all guests.

There aren't enough to sit all guests.

There aren't enough chairs to sit all guests.

2

This apartment has as many bedrooms as the one next door.

This apartment has as much bedrooms as the one next door.

This apartment has too many bedrooms as the one next door.

3

The living room is large just as as the dining room.

The living room is just as large as the dining room.

The living room is just large as the dining room as.

4

The house is too old for a modern neighborhood.

The house is old for a modern neighborhood.

The house is too many old for a modern neighborhood.

5

The view from the window is enough impressive as the view from the balcony.

The view from the window is as impressive as the view from the balcony.

The view from the window is impressive as the view as from the balcony.

6

The new house has as natural much light as the old one.

The new house has as many natural light as the old one.

The new house has as much natural light as the old one.

WISHES

C. Read and complete the gaps with the appropriate verb forms to express a desire or regret about the present situation.

1 My classmate often misses deadlines.

I wish my classmate _____ deadlines so often.

2 My activities are very extensive.

I wish my activities _____ very extensive.

3 My parents don't have a vacation home.

I wish they _____ a vacation home.

4 My friends won't stop asking about my plans.

I wish they _____ asking about my plans.

5 The construction outside is very loud.

I wish the construction outside _____ so loud.

6 The theme of the class is complicated.

I wish it _____ so complicated.

7 You will always arrive so late. I'm tired of always waiting for you!

I wish you _____ so late. I'm tired of always waiting for you!