

MATCHING (GAPPED TEXT)

Read the text below. Four sentences have been removed from the blog. Choose from sentences (A-D) to fit each gap (1-4).

Legoland Water Park

My hobby is collecting and building Lego structures. _____ (1)
It was created by The Lego Group in Denmark.

When my dad suggested going to Legoland in Johor, I was over the moon. Since we were experiencing a spell of hot weather, my siblings and I opted to visit the Legoland Water Park first.

_____ (2) It is an interactive playground with multiple levels and slides.
I loved having the 300-gallon bucket of water drench me from head to toe.

Next, we took on the Build-A-Boat challenge. _____ (3) Nevertheless, it was fun! We rounded off our trip by splashing in the Wave Pool where we caught some waves.

In a nutshell, it was a day well-spent. _____ (4) I am looking forward to the Ninjago ride and visiting Dino Island.

A	Our first stop was the Joker Soaker.
B	Tomorrow, we'll be heading to the Lego Theme Park.
C	Lego is a plastic building block toy.
D	I thought our boat was pretty amazing, but unfortunately it did not do so well as it raced down the rapids.

Read the text below. Four sentences have been removed from the blog. Choose from sentences (E-H) to fit each gap (5-8).

Learning a New Language

Did you know that not all languages are made to be spoken? _____ (5)

This is called sign language, and it helps the hearing-impaired community to communicate with each other.

Today, many people are picking up sign language as a second or third language to learn.

_____ (6)

An obvious one is so that we can communicate with deaf, or hard of hearing friends and acquaintances. _____ (7) Hence, sign language plays a vital role here.

Another benefit of learning sign language is that learning something new helps to stimulate our cognitive skills and keeps our brains active. _____ (8) You'll be amazed by the benefits you reap in.

E

There are many benefits to learning this language.

F

So, if you have time on your hands, give it a try.

G

There are also a number of people with degenerative diseases which makes it hard for them to talk.

H

One in particular is to communicate by making small signs or gestures with our fingers or hands.