A day in the life of a football player

Hi! My name's Anthony Martial and I'm from England. I'm a footballer and I play for Manchester United in the English Premier League. I live in a block of flats with my wife and my daughter. Our flat is in the centre of London and the block is very modern.

I have a very strict daily routine. I always get up at half past seven and I have breakfast at 7.40 a.m. with my family. I usually have toast with butter, eggs and orange juice. But I sometimes have a fruit salad and a bowl of cereal. In the morning, I always go jogging and then I take my daughter to school. Her favourite subjects are Chemistry and Geography. After that, I often go to the gym and I do exercise until midday.

In England, football matches are usually on Saturdays. Those days, I go to the stadium at about 9.15. Our practice starts at 9.30 and I'm never late. I have lunch at quarter past twelve with the other players. We usually have pasta or chicken with vegetables. The match starts at 3 p.m. and finishes at 4.30 p.m. After the match I have a drink with the team in the pub in front of the stadium. I usually go home at 6 o'clock.

Yesterday we played against Arsenal and I scored two goals. It was a great match. When I got home, I had a shower and cooked dinner for my family. I went to sleep at about 9 p.m. I was very tired so I didn't read in bed or watch a DVD. It's not easy to be a football player!
