An illustration of four children standing in a park-like setting. From left to right: a girl in a pink hijab and dress, a boy in a white shirt and brown pants waving, a boy in a white shirt and brown pants wearing a green cap, and a girl in a white hijab and blue dress. They are all holding a large, light brown rectangular sign. The background features green trees, a brown hill, and a dark sky with white clouds. The ground is green with small white flowers.
