FOR AND AGAINST ESSAY

Online shopping has _____ very popular. It _____ people to shop from home using internet access. Like any other activity, online shopping has its advantages and disadvantages.

One main advantage of online shopping is the convenience it _____. You can _____ products from anywhere in the world without _____ your house. Online stores are _____ 24/7, allowing you to shop at any time, from Monday to Sunday. Additionally, online shopping _____ access to a wide variety of sizes and products, often at cheaper prices _____ to physical stores.

However, online shopping also _____ its disadvantages. One of them is the additional shipping cost, which can _____ the total price of your purchase. Delivery can _____ time, which is not good if you _____ the product urgently. Another issue is the inability to _____ or try on products, making it harder to determine if they will _____ your expectations. Security is also a concern, as hackers can _____ personal information and credit card details. Finally, with online shopping there is a lot of packaging waste, which is harmful to the environment.

In conclusion, I believe that online shopping _____ a great option because it _____ got more advantages than disadvantages. However, it is important for people to _____ their online stores carefully to _____ they receive good service and _____ their personal information.

LIVEWORKSHEETS