

Prepositional Phrases

Multiple Choice Exercise

Choose the correct meaning for each prepositional phrase:

1 For a change

- A) To prepare something beforehand
- B) To do something differently than usual
- C) To make a mistake

2 On condition

- A) Only if a specific requirement is met
- B) Without planning to
- C) Very quickly

3 In advance

- A) At the last moment
- B) Before something happens or is needed
- C) With complete certainty

4 At the same time

- A) Happening simultaneously
- B) Immediately noticeable
- C) Before something starts

5 In case

- A) If something happens or as a precaution
- B) With complete certainty
- C) Very carefully

6 Without doubt

- A) Absolutely certain
- B) Just before it's too late
- C) Happening by accident

Prepositional Phrases

Multiple Choice Exercise

7 At a glance

- A) By accident
- B) Easily or immediately noticeable
- C) In the future

8 By mistake

- A) Without planning to; accidentally
- B) At the right time
- C) Completely impossible

9 In the sales

- A) At a moment when prices are reduced
- B) In preparation for something
- C) Under strict conditions

10 Out of the question

- A) Easily noticed
- B) Completely impossible or unacceptable
- C) As a precaution

11 Out of date

- A) No longer valid or modern
- B) Happening at the same time
- C) Very surprising

12 In time

- A) Too late
- B) Just early enough to avoid being late
- C) By accident