My Weekend Routine

Weekends are my favourite part of the week because I can finally relax and enjoy some free time. On Saturday mornings, I usually sleep a bit longer than on school days.

(1)

After breakfast, I often help my parents with some housework or go to the supermarket with them.

(2)

In the afternoon, I like to meet my friends at the park or go to a café. We talk, laugh, and sometimes play games together.

(3)

Sundays are usually quieter. I spend most of the day at home catching up on homework or preparing for the school week.

(4)

In the evening, my family and I often have a nice dinner together and watch a movie or play board games.

(5)

Weekends are a perfect mix of relaxation, fun, and preparation for the week ahead.

- A. It's nice to start the day without rushing to get ready for school.
- B. It's a great way to enjoy the afternoon and forget about school for a while.
- C. Sometimes, we cook something special, like homemade pizza or pasta.
- D. I like to organise my school bag and make a plan for the week.
- E. It feels good to be helpful and spend time with my family.
