

What's the matter?

A Complete the sentences with parts of the body.

1. You see with your _____.
2. Your _____ is between your head and your shoulders.
3. You put food into your _____ when you eat.
4. Your _____ is part of your leg. It's not the foot.
5. Your hand is at the end of your _____.

B Complete the conversations with object pronouns.

1. What's the matter with _____? She looks sick.
2. I'm coming. Wait for _____.
3. My father has brown hair and brown eyes. I look like _____.
4. What's the matter with _____? They don't look very happy.
5. The teachers are nice. Talk to _____ about your problems with schoolwork.
6. It's your birthday today. I have a present for _____.
7. I can't do this math problem. Can you help me with _____?

C Match the problems and advice.

1. _____ I have a headache.	a. Don't walk on that leg.
2. _____ I have a stomachache	b. See the dentist.
3. _____ I have a sore knee.	c. Take an aspirin.
4. _____ I have a toothache.	d. Put on a sweater.
5. _____ I have a cold, and I'm sneezing.	e. Don't drink any coffee.
6. _____ I'm cold.	f. Take some medicine.