Finding my cap

Yesterday, I was in town with my friend Arwa. I wanted to spend my pocket money and Arwa wanted to take some photos. She has a camera and she's very good at taking photos. Suddenly, I saw that I didn't have my cap with me. I felt very sad because it was my favourite cap. Then Arwa had an idea. She looked at the photos that she took on the day. The first photo was at the gift shop and I had my cap on. The next one was at the toy shop, and I still had my cap. Then there was a photo of the shop where we bought some sports clothes: no cap! So we went back there and I found it!
